

BARBARA COLOROSO

Good Kids!

Inspiring Integrity & Inner Discipline

Barbara Coloroso is one of the wisest, most compassionate voices in parent education today. A sought-after speaker and author, Ms. Coloroso cuts to the core of what children need to develop into kind, ethical and responsible young adults. She explains how parents can structure the very stuff of family life - chores, mealtimes, sibling conflict, bedtimes, allowances, curfews and other daily challenges — to reinforce values and accountability.

Drawing upon 40 years of counseling experience, she reveals six critical life messages all children need to hear, explores the difference between discipline and punishment and offers innovative ways to nurture good character in children and teens.

Ms. Coloroso's books include Just Because It's Not Wrong Doesn't Make It Right and The Bully, The Bullied and the Bystander. Special note: The February 1 morning presentation at Phillips Brooks School will be devoted to the topic of bullying.
